3 DAYS - 644 KM - SAIGON > MUI NE > TA DUNG > SAIGON

3 days from Saigon, a remarkable change of scenery: the Ke Ga Lighthouse coastline into Mui Ne, then Highway QL28 climbing into coffee country to Ta Dung's island-dotted lake, and home via quiet back roads. Short enough for a long weekend, substantial enough to feel like a real expedition.

2COAST TO HIGHLANDS: THE ZEN CAFE LOOP

4 DAYS - 941 KM - SAIGON > KE GA > DALAT > CENTRAL HIGHLANDS > SAIGON

4 days from Saigon, nearly 1,000 km of coast, mountains, waterfalls and coffee country: the Can Gio mangroves and Ke Ga Lighthouse into the Bau Trang dunes, climbing to Da Lat's flowing mountain roads, then deeper into coffee country past Elephant Waterfall and Ta Dung to Zen Cafe, before quiet back roads home. Maximum variety without a full week away.

3JUNGLE TO THE SEA: KE GA ADVENTURE

3 DAYS - 818 KM - SAIGON > NAM CAT TIEN > DI LINH > KE GA > SAIGON

4 days from Saigon, jungle, river crossings and coffee country to the sea: rural roads and Dong Nai River crossings toward Cat Tien National Park (with light off-road for those who want it), then remote highland roads through Ta Dung to Di Linh, before QL28 and QL55 wind south to an evening at Ke Ga, and home to Saigon. The more adventurous side of the south.

4THE DALAT GRAND WEEKENDER

3 DAYS - 1,030 KM - SAIGON - DI LINH - DALAT - SAIGON

3 days, over 1,000 km, the most riding-focused of ART's short southern expeditions: the Cat Lai ferry into Di Linh's highlands, the dramatic QL28B descent to white sand and the Ca Na salt marshes, then back up to Da Lat for a premium overnight, before Elephant Waterfall and quiet back roads home. Long days, changing terrain, built for confident riders.
